Remo Hazy Timpani Heads

The choice of the world's leading tympanists for over 40 years. Hazy with no insert ring.

The Best Way to Determine Size:

Remove the old head from the drum. Measure the outside diameter of the old head aluminum ring or flesh hoop. Keep in mind that timpani heads are measured differently from all other drum heads. Timpani heads are measured by the outside diameter of the entire drumhead; as if you were measuring it to fit in a box.

Even Steven Trading

Here's how it works

We always need instruments to overhaul.

Before putting your old instrument(s) in the attic, consider trading them in towards your instrument purchase. We will take any instruments you are no longer using and give you a trade allowance to use towards anything we sell!

Whether you have one instrument or several instruments give us your list and we'll give you a price. We take Brasswinds, Woodwinds, Percussion Equipment.

You'll be amazed at what you can SAVE when you TRADE!

Call 1-800-872-2263 during business hours.

Mon-Fri 8:30-5:30 CST

We can answer all your questions. It's Easy!

Take a look at your inventory.

Put together a list of instruments you wish to trade in. Put down anything you no longer have a need for. Some items may seem like junk to you but it may be worth something to our Repair Department. It all adds to your Total Trade Allowance!

Make a List ~ Tell us about your trades

- A. Type of Instrument
- B. Brand of Manufacturer
- C. Finish (brass, silver, resonite, wood, etc.)
- D. Instrument Condition (Excellent, Good, Fair, Poor, etc.)
- E. List Any Missing Parts (3rd valve slide, sax neck, etc.)

Tell Us What You Need

Tell us what equipment you are looking to purchase. It's to your advantage to tell us what it is you are looking for. This helps us to put together the best possible package price for you. We'll Make you an Offer

After we review your list of trade instruments, we will contact you with a trade allowance.

If you like our offer:

- > We will assist you with shipping arrangements for sending your trades.
- > We will begin processing your order.

SAVE when you TRADE!

Use the online submission form.

Or you may also email or fax your list to us.
